Memorandum for
Holders - 1IRAC-M-12
11 August 1975
(REVISED)

Mr. Colby suggested that in addition to the four areas noted above it might be useful for State to include the Third World problem as a subject for external research.

[redacted] asked the status of the State Courier Service. [redacted] noted the exchange of correspondence between [redacted] and the DCI (USIB/IRAC-D-2.1/26, 28 July 1975). General Wilson reported that he had this matter under review. He said one area of possible concern was the placing of classified courier material within the cargo area of the aircraft. [redacted] said NSA had requested State not to use this practice with SIGINT material for cargo inbound to the site. Mr. Colby asked General Wilson to pursue this matter to ensure that the necessary service is reinstituted as soon as possible.

4. Presentation of FY 1977 CIA Program and Identification of Principal Issues Under Study

Mr. Jack Iams of CIA presented this item (his briefing aids are available in the IRAC Secretariat).

Mr. Colby said that he agreed to keep [redacted] and [redacted] within the CIA budget pending a determination of the Intelligence Research & Development Council. Mr. Iams noted the [redacted] He said this involved approximately [redacted] which if not filled by DIA would require an increased manning by CIA. [redacted] said that he was reviewing this matter and viewed it as an opportunity for DIA analyst to be used throughout the [redacted] Mr. Colby said he hoped a good balance between the agencies could be achieved.

5. Presidential Policy Guidance for the Preparation of FY 1977 Budget Submissions and Recommendations for the Intelligence Community

At the invitation of Mr. Colby, [redacted] commented on the subject letter. (A copy is being circulated as USIB/IRAC-D-74.2/13, limited distribution through special restricted channels.) He highlighted that inflation was treated separately and that the guidance provided [redacted] growth for new ideas. He said that it was OMB's hope
